

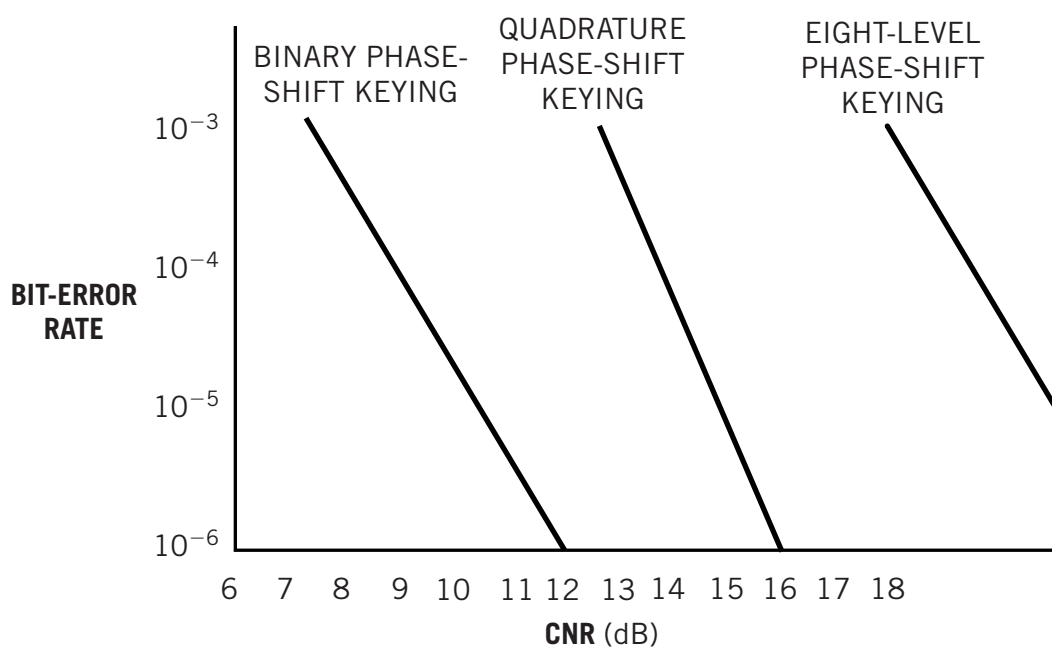

Figure 2

You can expect a bit-error rate that is a function of both the CNR and the system modulation that you use for the data.