

Figure 1

In second-harmonic generation, a new photon created from two identical photons has twice the energy and frequency and one-half the wavelength of the initial photons.