

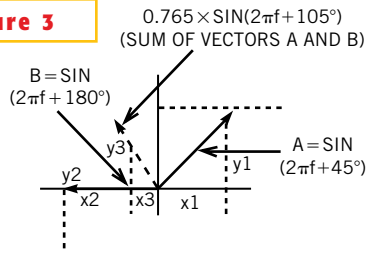

Figure 3

You can calculate the magnitude of the summed signals from the DDS chips by representing each signal as a rotating vector.