

Figure 2 Imperfections in fiber and continued degradation over time cause modes to propagate through the fiber at different speeds. This situation leads to dispersion and potential overlapping of light.

---