

Figure 2 Depending on the significance and timing of a threat, the active and preventive safety systems inform the driver as early as possible, warn the driver if there is no driver reaction to the information, and actively assist or intervene to avoid an accident or mitigate its consequences (courtesy PreVent).