

Figure 5 The intent is to place the pick-up loop 1 in. above the plane that would represent the surface of the motherboard if the converter were mounted in an appropriate through-hole design.

---