

Figure 1 Alias signals A', a single tone, and B', a spectrum, can reside in any Nyquist zone if no antialias filter exists in a sampled system, but you can find both in Zone 1, where A' now obscures an information-bearing tone. A originates in Nyquist Zone 4, and B is from Zone 3.