

Figure 3 The GSM standard has a signal envelop with a 217-Hz frequency. Because power levels are higher and the human ear is more sensitive at 217 Hz, these phones can produce large interference problems.

---