

Figure 1 Clipping distortion is apparent when comparing the blue input with the yellow, moderately clipped output waveform or the red, heavily clipped output waveform. Symmetrical clipping such as this one appears as odd harmonics in the frequency domain. Amplifier nonlinearity creates intermodulation distortion that is harmonically unrelated to the two input tones.
