

Figure 1 You can make off-grid pins and connections anywhere on the line without major consequences (a). In subwavelength processes, connections must be on-grid with no overhang (b and c).