

Figure 4 For measurements at RF and microwave frequencies, the third-order-intermodulation products fall inside the band of interest and thus dominate most spectral measurements. The third-order-distortion products follow the $2 \times F_1 - F_2$ and $2 \times F_2 - F_1$ rule.