

Figure 6 The intersection of third-order intercept and noise-floor sweep provides the optimal mixer-input level for maximizing dynamic range. This optimized mixer-input level provides a trade-off between noise floor and distortion performance.