

Figure 1 Although comprising five IC packages, this digitally gain-programmable instrumentation amplifier reaches a typical bandwidth of 1.9 MHz at a gain of 1000 and thus covers the megahertz range at any of the programmable gains of one, 10, 100, and 1000.