

Figure A When right-side contacts close, the charge line discharges into a 50Ω diode load. Strict attention to construction allows wideband, 50Ω characteristics, permitting a 250-psec rise time and a high-purity output pulse.